SCH. GOLDEN-ROD BOUND HOME.

Unable to Secure Herring from Sch. Lewis H. Giles.

Fierce Blizzard Closed Railroads from Bay of Islands.

Sch. Golden Rod of this port sailed yesterday from Port au Basques for home. The vessel went to Port au Basques recently to bring home if possible the cargo of frozen herring of sch. Lewis H. Giles of this port, which craft was frozen in at Bay of Islands. It was intended to bring the cargo of the Giles to Birchy Cove over the ice to the cars and then ship it to port au Basques, load it in sch. Golden Rod and thus get it home to market. Unfortunately, however, after the Golden Rod arrived, that part of Newfoundland was swept by three fierce blizzards of unusual severity. The railroad line between Bay of Islands and Birchy Cove was buried beneath ice and snow and closed for the season, it being impossible to run cars. Because of this state of affairs, the cargo of the Giles was not started from her hold, and the Golden Rod left yesterday for home without the herring.
