SCIENTISTS SUCCESSFUL.

Take Plaster Cast of Mammoth Whale.

Is for Exhibition for St. Louis Exposition.

Special to the Times.

Halifax, July 14, 1903.—News received here from St. John's N. F., says that the American scientists who were at Balena to make a plaster cast of a whale for the St. Louis Exposition, returned today, having had fullest successs in their mission. They secured a splendid "bull" fish, a sulphur bottom, 78 feet long, and weighing about 70 tons. They made a cast of this, stripped off the flesh, cleaned the skeleton and brought it with them. The frame of the head is 19 by nine feet, and weighs three tons.

RIGHT OFF RACE POINT.

Lots of Mackerel Were Seen This Morning.

STEAMER REPORTS AT BOSTON.

Saw the Fish and No Seiners Were There.

A steamer which arrived at Boston this noon from the south ward reports seeing many large schools of mackerel this morning between four and five miles off Race Point. The fish were showing finely and there was not a seiner in the vicinity.

So interested were some of the officers that they notified the people at T wharf of what they had seen and the news was immediately telephoned to this city.
