WEEKLY FISH MARKET.

There has been little of note in the local fish market the past week. The trade is termed quiet by the shippers. Prices from the vessels are firm and in some cases, notably bank cod, have shown a sharp advance, but on the other hand, while there has been no break, the cured fish market is weak in spots, taking last sales as a basis.

No Newfoundland salt herring have arrived as yet but the dealers are preparing for a busy smoked bloater season, as orders and inquiries indicate a big demand.

Several second salt bank fares have arrived and two of them were unexpectedly good.

Another cargo of Newfoundland cod is on the way, this one from Grand Bank, Fortune Bay.

The pollock fleet has done practically nothing and the season is apparently about over.

The receipts for the week, up to noon today aggregate:

1,772,000 pounds of salt cod.
400,000 pounds of fresh cod.
151,000 pounds of hake.
20,000 pounds of cusk.
350,000 pounds of pollock.
18,000 pounds of halibut.
1240 barrels of salt herring.
1330 barrels of fresh herring.
41,000 lbs. fresh haddock.
14 bbls fresh mackerel.
160 bbls. whiting, 4000 lbs. flitched halibut.

Prices based on Board of Trade quotations and last sales are as follows:

Louisburg, C. B., Fishing Season Over.

The fishery season at Louisburg, C. B., may now said to have closed. There may be a few days yet when a few codfish will be taken, but the general fishing season is over. The fall run of mackerel did not strike there. The fish in all probability passed far out from the land, much farther out than the fishermen had their nets set. The catch of mackerel on the whole is below that of last season, the spring run of these fish being much in decrease of last year. The herring catch is also much less than last year. The usual run of summer herring did not strike in on the coast last summer. The prices of all kinds of fish are high, however, and this will tend to make the season a profitable one to fishermen, even though the catch is below the average.
