Items of Much Interest from the Western Star.

Tells of Vessels Loading and the Recent Storm.

From that bright little sheet, the Bay of Islands Western Star of last Wednesday, we clip the following items which we know will be of interest to our readers:

"Since last report there has been little better fishing in the bay, but it has been chiefly confined to Middle Arm, where good fares were secured the latter part of the week. One American vessel with ten dories caught 32 barrels in two days. Other vessels fared equally as well and the industry put on its wonted activity.

"The American vessels sch. Tattler, with 2300 bbls. in bulk and 200 in barrels, and sch. H. M. Stanley with 1600 barrels, 150 of which were barreled, sailed on Sunday. Schs. Jennie B. Hodgdon and Corsair finished loading on Monday, Sch. Golden Rod with 1150 barrels frozen fish and 175 barrels in bulk, will load today. Sch. Edna W. Hopper had 1100 bbls on Saturday, sch. Parthia 800, and sch. Ralph F. Hodgdon with five dories had 600 bbls. There are 33 American vessels here, and 18 Lunenburgers.

"Sch. A. E. Whyland left Gloucester on Monday of last week, and the W. E. Morrisey on Wednesday. Mr. F. Beazley informs us that he dispatched sch. Laurel to Halifax yesterday with a cargo of 1575 barrels, 1400 of which were in bulk."

Sch. Tattler Hove Down.

"Sch. Tattler when coming out of Middle Arm Saturday had a narrow escape. A squall of wind struck her at 7.30 p. m., causing her to heel over so that it was feared she would never come up again, and water poured down the cabin. There were a great many men on the vessel and excitement ran high for a while."

Lost Nets in Storm.

"Capt. Shaw is reported to have lost nine nets, and Capt. Butt 11 nets, and one A...
