FAIR AMOUNT OF FISH TODAY

ONLY ONE SMALL TRIP MACKEREL LANDED THIS MORNING.

A fair amount of fresh fish was landed here this morning, while a small seiner landed a light trip of mackerel at the Producers' Fish company, the Boston boat Mayflower bringing in 3500 pounds. Boat Inca which has been gill netting off of the Maine coast, returned this morning, bringing 10,000 pounds of cod for Murray & Tarr. The off-shore dragger Beauty St. Joseph landed a 65,000 pound fare to fillet at the General Seafoods corporation. Three of the small Provincetown trawlers landed 1500 pound fares at Murray & Tarr's. Gill net receipts yesterday fell down to around 20,000 pounds.

FIRST SWO BROUGHT

The three swordfish landed by sch. Liberty at New Bedford on May 31 sold for 70 cents per pound. The same boat landed a few fish at the same port last year on June 4. Quite a number of the swordfish fleet have sailed and indications are that the fleet will be the largest ever. First arrivals at the Boston pier last year were on June 10, the Isabelle with 41 and the Irene and Mabel, 67 fish. They sold for 40 cents per pound for large and 30 cents for small.

Lobsters Plenty.

Lobsters are in good supply from Nova Scotia, but the hot weather of the past few days was not favorable for the transportation of those fish. Prices have been steady with no change in the market.

WEEK OPENS VERY QUIETLY

LOCAL FRESH FISH SUPPLY NOT VERY GOOD FOR STARTER.

Loca fresh fish receipts over the week-end were only fair, gill netters landing enough to start the shipments out of town. From off shore dragging the schooner Leonora C. brought 65,000 pounds of fresh fish for the General Seafoods this forenoon. The only other arrival was a small trawler at Powers & McDonald. Gill net receipts yesterday and Saturday amounted to 22,000 pounds, only two boast lifting yesterday.
