BOSTON PIER SEES BRIGHT LOOKOUT FOR '37

A number of new records were set at the Boston fish pier during 1936 and the outlook is brighter for 1937. A number of new and modern large trawlers have been launched recently and about 15 more are being constructed or proposed. Last week there were 74 arrivals with 4,141,700 pounds of fresh fish, almost twice as much as in the corresponding week of 1936, when there were 65 arrivals with 2,282,900 pounds of fresh fish.

Receipts were divided as follows:

1936—1,059,500 pounds of haddock; 420,100 pounds of scrod; 235,500 pounds of large cod; 347,000 pounds of market cod; 2,079,600 pounds of mixed fish.

1936 in comparison with 46,289,000 pounds in 1935. These figures include the mackerel landed at all ports but mostly at Boston. The number of trips brought to the Boston pier was 865 as compared with 968 in 1935.

The swordfish fleet numbered 45 as compared with 47 in 1935 and landed 140 trips as compared with 166 in 1935. Total receipts were 18,937, comprising 6472 direct from the fleet, 5318 from Nova Scotia and 7147 from Japan. The total in 1935 amounted to 23,239 fish divided as follows: 12,137 direct from the fleet; 8065 from Nova Scotia and 3037 from Japan.

The growing menace from imported Japanese swordfish is apparent. Receipts from Japan more than doubled in 1936 and the importations were actually more than the number of fish caught by the home fleet.
