Portland Notes

A fleet of Boston and Gloucester schooners, making their winter base at Portland, for the first time in many years, have landed more than 2,000,000 pounds of groundfish in the past four months.

Wholesale dealers, who estimated the catch, said it was two and one-half times the normal receipts at Portland in a similar period.

Trawler To Be Scrapped

After operating successfully in the fisheries out of Boston for the past 21 years, the trawler Tide has been sold by the Forty Fathom Fisheries to the Union Shipbuilding Company of Baltimore, and has been delivered to that concern to be scrapped. The Tide, one of the pioneers of her type of fisherman, was built at Manitowoc, Wis., in 1916, and registered 303 tons gross. She is the third of the older craft to be sold in recent months, in line with the company's policy of ridding the fleet of outmoded tonnage since the commissioning of the three large, modern de luxe trawlers last year.

Portland, Me., Notes.

Two Portland, Me., fishing schooners landed fares at Portland, Friday; the Sunapee had 15,000 pounds of groundfish and the Dirigo First, 10,000 pounds.
