A ROUSER.

Sch. Annie Greenlaw Weighed Off 61,000 Pounds Halibut.

Fine Stock of $4591, Share Was $116.25.

Sch. Annie Greenlaw, Capt. James McHenry, weighed off 61,000 pounds of halibut as the result of her recent month's trip. On this fine fare the magnificent stock of $4591 was made, and the crew hae the pleasure of sharing $116 25 apiece as the result of their labors.

They are all around the finest halibut fare, in point of size, share and stock, landed for some time and Capt. McHenry is to be congratulated on his good fortune. In his short term of service as a master mariner he has risen by steady, hard work to the very front rank and is now receiving the benefits to which his good judgment and strict attention to his calling has entitled him.

Sch. Navahoe Has 350 Barrels at New York.

FISH BRINGING 10 CENTS EACH.

Capt. Martin Welch Making a Big Record.

A special to the TIMES this morning announces the arrival at Fulton dock, New York, of sch. Navahoe, Capt. Martin Welch, of this port with 300 barrels of fresh mackerel.

This is the second largest trip of the season and also the second fare of the season for Capt. Welch he having landed the first fare at New York this year.

The fish are medium, going 1 1 2 pounds apiece and are selling at 10 cents each. This means a fine stock for Capt. Welch, who is certainly doing a great hustle this season and bids fair to make them all hustle.

A special dispatch to the TIMES this forenoon reports the following additional netters at New York:

Steamer F. S. Willard, 1000 fresh mackerel; sch. Effie and Bernie, 1800 do.; sch. Laura Enos, 680 do.

The fish are mostly medium in size.

Fresh mackerel are selling at New York for 10 and 15 cents each.
