CAPT. COLLINS' FUNERAL.

Notable Company of State Officials Attend Services.

A notable company of state officials, headed by Gov. Bates, attended the funeral yesterday forenoon of Capt. Joseph W. Collins, chairman of the Massachusetts fish and game commission at his residence, 9 Sparhawk street, Brighton. Rev. R. P. Walker, pastor of the Allston M. E. Church, conducted the service, and was assisted by Rev. J. E. Waterhouse of Winthrop, Rev. Jesse Wagner of Waltham and Rev. John E. Perry of the Brighton Avenue Baptist church, Brighton.

The coffin was nearly concealed by floral remembrances, the governor having sent a cluster of white roses and fern. There were also floral tributes from the fish and game commission, the Boston Wholesale Fish Dealers' Association, Commissioner Darling and 18 deputies of the fish and game commission, the Middlesex Sportsmen's Association of Arlington. The above-named organizations were represented by delegations at the services. The 18 deputies of the fish and game commission accompanied the body to this city on an early afternoon train and acted as the bearers from the railroad station to the grave in the family lot there.

Interment was at Oak Grove cemetery.
