Stream No. 13 cont'd
among the boulders. At the mean high tide mouth there is good fine gravel. Considerable long moss on the bottom around the mouth. Bed better upstream.
Sept. 18, 1927: 21,000 fish.

Stream No. 14 (1 notice)
East arm of Two Moon Bay.
Width: 5 feet
Depth: 4 inches.
Has a rough, blocky rock bottom and comes in through a narrow canyon. Has a series of small falls. The mouth is also rough.
Sept. 30, 1926: Only 1 dead fish.
1927: No visit.

Stream No. 15 (2 notices)
Irish Cove
Width: 12 feet
Depth: 4 inches.
Is accessible about $1\frac{1}{4}$ miles from half-tide mouth.
Has a fine gravel bottom and a long salt-water slough at mouth. Spreads out a good deal.
1926: No visit. Estimate allowed for 1927: " " " " "

Stream No. 16 (2 notices)
Head Whalen Bay
There are 2 streams at the head just a short distance apart. Large one 40 feet wide 12 inches deep; small one 12 feet wide, 4 inches deep.
Both have good bottoms. Large one is stream proper. Fairly large flatish gravel with lots of fine stuff mixed with it. Out around the mouth gravel is finer and more round.
1926: No visit. Estimate allowed for.
1927: " " " " "