FROM SECOND TRIP.

Sch. Elector Home Today with Another Fine Trip.

Sch. Elector, Capt. Clayton Morrissey, arrived home this morning from her second salt bank trip of the season, being the first of the second trip crafts to arrive. Capt. Morrissey has a fine fare as usual, hailing for 250,000 pounds of salt cod which will make him up an extra fine season's work, he weighing off 283,000 pounds on the first trip and getting a fine price. This fare, in today, sold to Cunningham & Thompson at $4.25 per hundred weight for large and $3.25 for mediums, which is even higher than the price on the spring trips.

LOUISBURG LETTER.

Four Gloucester Bankers Had Monday Gale Very Severe.

Sch. Alice R. Lawson Had 18 Dories Swept from Deck.

Under date of Wednesday, our Louisburg, C. B., correspondent writes us as follows:

One of the severest storms for many years visited this coast Monday. In the morning the wind blew heavy from the southeast, accompanied with snow and rain. In the afternoon it suddenly veered to northeast and blew a perfect hurricane, accompanied by snow squalls.

On Wednesday afternoon four Gloucester vessels came in here and their captains reported having the gale very heavy. Sch. Maggie and May, Capt. Alex. McEachern, was about 40 miles from Scatteri. Capt. McEachern said it was quite moderate up to 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when the gale burst on them in all its fury. During the height of the storm, one of the crew named Boudrot was washed overboard and drowned.

Sch. Alice R. Lawson, Capt. Winslow, one of the Gloucester dory handling fleet, arrived Tuesday night. She had the gale very severe, being struck by a heavy sea which swept her deck and carried off 18 dories, none of which were recovered.

Sch. Arkona, Capt. Newman Wharton, also arrived Tuesday night. She had the gale off Scatteri and had her foresail badly torn. She is in to repair.

Sch. J. J. Flaherty, Capt. LeBlanc, is also there. She rode out the gale off Scatteri and came through it without damage.

The Provincetown sch. Gladstone arrived Wednesday from the fishing grounds. Her captain reports breaking adrift during the big gale and losing an anchor and the greater part of her cable.

FLEET IS GATHERING.

Big Herring Schools Reported Outside Bay of Islands.

Not Much Fishing Has Been Done As Yet.

At Bay of Islands, up to last Wedensday, were 19 American and 14 Canadian vessels. The late arrivals of the former comprise schs. Georgie Campbell, Maxine Elliott, Oregon, Annie M. Parker, Orinoco, Lucinda I. Lowell, Dora A. Lawson, Lottie G. Merchant, Veda M. McKown, Esperanto, Smuggler, and Clintonia, and the late Canadian arrivals comprise schs. Juniata, Lottie, Earl V. S., Lila D. Young, Defender, Margaret E. Schwartz, Colonia, Mariner, Palatia, Ambition and Yukon.

The Bay of St. George sch. Unique is going to Bay of Islands for a load of herring.

The Newfoundland sch. B. G. Anderson is loading herring and codfish for Halifax, at Bay of St. George.

The British warship Brilliant, Capt. Anstruther, has arrived at Bay of Islands for the season.

Sch. Bohemia is reported to have secured 750,00 pounds of codfish at Bonne Bay.

The Western Star says: "Not very much has been done in this fishery so far, as there is only a small quantiy of gear set. It generally happens that herring strike in before fishermen are ready, and such is the case this year. Herring have been all over the bay the past fortnight; and outside the headlands such schools of them were never seen before. Nets set in Humber Arm and around Woods island have done moderately well, geting from one to six barrels a day. Now we learn of similar fares being taken in the upper part of Middle Arm. It is thought that after the storm of the past few days, the fish outside the bay will work ino the upper reaches. A great many men have come here from all parts of the country and with the present price ruling they will likely make good wages this fall."

Four of the American fishing "admirals" here are provided with gasoline boats, which are of great benefit to them. The best of the number is the one in charge of Capt. Cameron. She is fitted with a 17 horse-power engine, and can make about 10 knots.—Western Star.
