MACKEREL FLEET HAD GOOD DAY

THREE OFF-SHORE DRAGGERS ALSO IN WITH FARES FOR FILLETING.

Mackerel draggers found unusually good fishing Wednesday night, and yesterday morning, many of the fleet had thousands of pounds below decks holding them over for today's market. Several of the boats went to Boston with their fares, where they sold for 7 cents a pound.

Fresh fish receipts this morning were brought in by three of the off-shore dragging fleet, coming from Boston for the General Seafoods Corporation for filleting. Only a few of the gill netters fished yesterday but the receipts were good, being over 250,000 pounds.
