VARIETY OF FARES IN PAST 24 HOURS

OVER 50,000 LANDED SINCE YESTERDAY—DRAGGER HAS 50,000 SOLE.

Over 50,000 pounds of mackerel, grey sole, cod and hake, were landed in this port since yesterday by a group of small seiners, gill netters, draggers and trawlers, with the Frances C., a dragger, being top of the list, having 10,000 pounds of grey sole for the Producers Fish company at the Fort this morning. The last of the seiners left last night for their first turn to chase the mackerel schools, and the first of the second list of sailings are scheduled to get away the first of next week.

The lumber schooner Utilla from Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, arrived in port during the night and will take 100,000 feet of spruce and hemlock over to the Gloucester Coal and Lumber company wharf.
