Incidentally, this is the largest tuna caught in Ipswich bay by rod and reel so far this season.

Another lucky fisherman, and this time nearer home, was Capt. Raymond Shum, in command of the High school R.O.T.C. The report is that Capt. Shum caught a 97-pound tuna off Algonquin, Me., and landed this fish in about 13 minutes.

Codfish Scarce.

Codfish are scarce all along the east coast. At Flat Islands all but four schooners have arrived from Labrador and Straits. All schooners are loaded. All fishermen have left the Wadhams and the fishery there has been poor.—N. F. Trade Review.
