11 Beginning with music: “How can you communicate the depth and 12 beauty that Alaska holds, you want to, and your family and friends have 13 so many questions. You tell them about the mountains, the glaciers, 14 you may even send them pictures, but until you send them a taste of 15 Alaska you haven’t begun. Alaska Tribal Cache makes that taste from 16 Seldovia’s natural treasure, wildberries, picked and processed into fresh 17 flavored jams and jellies by local tribal members, packed in beautiful 18 keepsake jars. And, how do you send such a thoughtful gift? For 19 information, or to order by phone, call one, eight hundred, two-20 seventy, seventy-eight ten. Alaska Tribal Cache has a variety of new gift 21 packs ready to meet your or your friends’ needs, call and order now, 22 call one, eight hundred, two-seventy, seventy-eight ten, for a tasteful
23 discovery of Seldovia’s natural treasure.” (End of disc.)
