David:

→ Replaced by copy of final article, attached.

Here is the article as cleared and as it will appear in the National Archives quarterly journal Prologue this coming March. Also attached at the end is the letter to me from Charyk, with his comments and observations, for your information. You are welcome to share the article with others, but, in that event, please remove the letter.

I do encourage you to put some of your recollections on paper. Meanwhile, I will try and arrange for a formal oral history interview with you. Probably would have to held in 4C1000 at the Pentagon. How often do you get to Washington these days? Would you agree to a visit for purposes of an interview for the record? Let me know a date that is convenient and I'll make the arrangements.

Best regards,

Charyk
