Herring Notes.

Sch. Ralph F. Hodgdon, Capt. William Greenleaf, and sch. Sarah E. Lee, Capt. George Hamer, arrived Tuesday night from Newfoundland herring trips.

The Hodgdon had 350 barrels frozen herring, while the Lee did not have a fish, no herring having been taken at Placentia after the vessel's arrival.

Capt. Hamer says that there are no herring and no prospects of any, and in the entire fleet at Newfoundland now, there is not much more than one full cargo.

The schooners left Placentia Bay February 4, and while the weather was considerable stormy on the homeward trip, no incidents are reported. Capt. Homer lay in Shelburne six days during a heavy blow, and reports a big fleet of haddockers there, many of which had been out for four weeks and nearly exhausted their supply of provisions without getting a chance to fish.

Sch. Helen F. Whitten, from this port for New York with a cargo of frozen herring, arrived at Vineyard Haven on Tuesday.
