Salt Herring Notes.

Dispatches from Bay of Islands, N. F., received here lately indicate that herring are scarce there. Schs. Norumbega has 800 barrels, Eliza H. Parkhurst 500 bbls., George Parker, 400 bbls., and Emma E Witherell, 200 bbls.

People from all parts of the colony are at Bay of Islands in hope of reaping a harvest from the fishery. Herring are too much harassed owing to a wall of nets extending over the bay, which will tend to frighten them off into deep water.

The appearance of herring in large quantities in Bonavista Bay at this season of the year is unusual. Excellent catches are being made, especially on the north side of the bay and this will prove a valuable supplement to the fishery which was a poor one on the Labrador coast for many.

Herring in large quantities have struck in at Woody Island, Placentia Bay They are very large and the prospect for good fishing is bright.

Sch. John J. Flaherty, hence for Newfoundland, put into Louisburg, C. B., for shelter on Saturday.

Has 1000 Barrels Frozen Herring.

Refrigerator vessel J. K. Manning of this port has 1000 barrels of frozen herring at Ipswich.

MADE GOOD HAULS.

Report that Gloucester Seiners Secured Mackerel off Sambro.

A Halifax, N. S., despatch of Thursday states that about 25 Gloucester seiners have been hovering about the entrance of Halifax harbor the past few days and have made some good hauls of fish. Several of them hace started for home loaded. The fish have been schooling off Sambro in immense quantities. When the gale sprang up Wednesday the fishermen had to run into port for shelter. Sch. George F. Edmund's is reported with 204 barrels of mackerel, sch. Kearsarge with 80 barrels and sch. Lottie G. Merchant with 110 barrels, all taken off Sambro.

Not much credence is placed in some parts of the dispatch here, as it is known that there are only five seiners off Halifax and all have been heard from recently. There is no doubt but what the mackerel are there, as the fleet are staying so late, and the reports of the catches of the Edmunds, Kearsarge and Merchant are known to be correct.
