Fishing Facts and Fancies.

The total number of fish shipped from Labrador this year is 253,867 quintals, valued at $754,688, against 198,867 quintals last year, valued at $673,570. The present year's exports were the largest for five years.

Two whales, known as the "suction" variety having no teeth, were washed ashore near Atlantic City, N. J., on Sunday. The larger one measured 70 feet in length, was 30 feet in circumference and weighs about 10 tons. Its calf or the baby whale, was 18 feet long. They had alternate ribs of black and white hide, and had evidently been dead for some days. This species of mammals are very rare.
