FINE FARE.

Sch. Anglo Saxon Has 40,000 Pounds of Halibut.

Sch. Anglo Saxon, Capt. Robert Popper arrived from Grand Bank yesterday afternoon with the best halibut fare of the winter, 40,000 pounds of fine fish. Despite the considerable drop in price from last sales, which considerably disappointed Capt. Popper and his crew, they will make a fine stock and share.

A Three-Masted Steel Fisherman.

The Boston Post says: "A movement is on foot among the T wharf fishermen to build a three-masted steel fishing schooner. Although no definite plans have been made, the proposition is the topic of discussion among the sailors and dealers on the water front.

Many of the captains and crews of the schooners which come to T wharf are opposed to the idea of a steel vessel, but on the other hand, the idea has many supporters. The chief argument offered against the building of a steel vessel is that she will not be able to stand the thumping against the wharves and other fishing vessels while waiting to unload.

No one has taken this project in hand yet, although the talk is kept up every day. It is not probable that any plans will be made before spring. A three-masted steel fishing vessel is a possibility but hardly a probability.

Herring Notes.

The weather in Placentia Bay has latterly been the coldest for years. About Sound Island and the frost is intense; Black River section is frozen over, so that the Argyle had to land the mail on the ice and Placentia harbor is caught over.

On the east side of Placentia Bay herring are very plentiful and a few schooners are now there partly loaded. There has not been as much caught this year as last, although it is said that in deep water the fish was equally as plentiful as any other season.

An official dispatch to the Assistant Collector at St. John's N. F., Jan. 30, from Bay of Islands, N. F., states that there was no water visible in any direction and that it is quite possible that the frozen in vessels may remain until April. The ice is now safe and travelling over it is good to Lark Harbor. The captains were into Bay of Islands and were in a state of despondency.

Big Western Halibut Trip.

Steamer New England of the New England Fish Company arrived at Vancouver, B. C., Wednesday with 85,000 pounds of fresh halibut. The fish will be shipped east as usual.

Halibut Sale.

The fare of sch. Anglo Saxon sold to the American Halibut Company at 10 1-4 cents per pound for white and 6 cents for gray, the New England Fish Co. securing the Oregon's fare at the same figures.

Herring Notes.

The herring catch at Bay of Islands to December 31 was 109,000 barrels, valued at $165,000. The value of the Bonne Bay fishery is placed at $55,000.

Worth a Good Deal.

The total value of the Newfoundland fisheries for the year 1901-1902 has been calculated by the minister of fisheries at $7,770,000.
