CODFISH SCARCE.

Bankers Did But Little on Second Baitings.

Capt. Malone Brings News From the Salt Fish Fleet.

Sch. Robin Hood, Capt. Stillman Malone, arrived from a salt bank trip this morning with 80,000 pounds of cod. Capt. Malone reports fish very scarce and practically none on the peak and says that the salt bankers did but little on their second baitings. Most of the fleet are now fishing off Cape North. From what he had heard Capt. Malone did not think the dory handliners were doing much.

REMARLABLE WORK.

Sch. Catherine and Ellen Has Over $50,000 to Her Credit.

Was Stocked In a Year and One Day.

Sch. Catherine and Ellen of Boston arrived at T wharf yesterday with one of the largest shack fares of the season, 130,000 pounds of fresh fish.

Up to this trip, the Catherine and Ellen had made the wonderful stock of $49,100. Her year ended May 11, so that in a year and a week she has put over $50,000 to her credit, a record probably never equalled by any fishing schooner, and all made in fresh fishing. Her trip of yesterday will bring in over $1300, so that she will have a safe margin of a few hundred dollars over the $50,000 mark,

The Catherine and Ellen is owned by Capt. Sylvester Whalen, and is commanded by Capt. Bartholomew Whalen, who has long been one of the leading fresh fishing skippers of the fleet, and whose remarkable record made this year is certainly deserving of the highest praise and is a monument to his hustling ability and judgment.

Fresh Fish Sales.

The fare of sch. Eva and Mildred sold to Reed & Gamage and those of schs. Albert W. Black and Agnes V. Gleason went to George Perkins & Son. The fare of sch. Comaie was bought by Cunningham & Thompson and Slade Gorton & Co. got the Emily Cooney's trip. Some of these vessels got $2.10 for their large cod.

GLOUCESTER COAL COMPANY.

Warm Weather Interfered with Preliminary Meeting.

A meeting of those interested in the Gloucester Coal Company was called for last evening at Scientific hall. It was the intention of those who are the promoters of the company to have the stock book open at that time and take subscriptions for stock. The excessively warm weather which prevailed no doubt had its effect on those who intended to meet and take stock in the new company, and as a result the attendance was so small that it was deemed inadvisable to attempt to transact any business under the circumstances.
