204 Dec. 5.

WEEKLY FISH MARKET.

Very light receipts and the unexpectedly low price on salt herring, caused by the collapse of the attempt of the producers to combine are the only feature of the week's market. All the salt bank fleet have arrived but one and the season practically closes with prices at top notch, the last fares bringing a five cent advance on medium fish. Georges also sold at an advance.

The pollock season appears to be about over. The fresh fish market is but lightly supplied and high prices rule. The first and largest division of tha salt herring fleet is all home but two craft and the first fare of Newfoundland frozen herring is bound home in sch. Richard Wainwright.

The tone of the cured fish market is firm; trade in smoked bloaters is good and the salt mackerel market is easier, prices being governed somewhat by offers and orders.

The receipts for the week, up to noon today, Dec. 5, aggregate:

407,000 pounds of salt cod.
25,000 pounds of fresh cod.
34,000 pounds of hake.
6,000 pounds of cusk.
80,000 pounds of pollock.
30,000 pounds of halibut.
5550 barrels of salt herring.
550 barrels of fresh herring.
44,000 lbs. fresh haddock.
700 qtls. cured fish.
12,000 boxes smoked herring.

Dec. 7.

GOOD SEASON'S WORK.

Capt. Hiram Forbes Makes Stock of $14,700.

Sch. W. E. Morrissey, Capt. Hiram Forbes, stocked $14,700 on her two bank trips this season, the crew making the fine share of $476. Capt. Forbes is one of the steady, reliable skippers who can always be depended on for a good season's stock, year after year.

Capt. Frrbes next season, as he has been for two years, will have the agency for the frozen squid supply at Canso and Port Mulgrave, which many of our salt bankers take for a first baiting on their early trips to the Peak.

After Maine Frozen Herring.

A small schooner from this port was towed to Falmouth Friday, where she will remain for a few days securing a cargo of frozen herring from the fishermen of that vicinity, who have been catching the desired fish in very large quantities in the lower bay for the past few weeks.

Canadian Eels.

A carload of Canadian eels, 50 barrels, arrived here this morning.

SCHEME OF REVENGE.

St. John's, N. F. Dispatch, Tells of Canadian Plans.

Yankee Vessels To Suffer for Alaskan Boundary

A St. John's N. F., dispatch in the Suuday Globe uses up two columns of space ostensibly to show that Canada, angered at the Alaskan boundary award, will try to wreak vengeance on Yankee vessels. It is significant that the dispatch comes from St. John's N. F,, and is just a part of the scheme of Canada to absorb Newfoundland, which has a few politicai supporters at the Newfoundland seat of government. The following closing paragraphs show the aim and object of the whale article.

"Canada aims, moreover, to absorb Newfoundland, so that thereby she may succeed to the undivided control of these inshore fisheries of the North Atlantic, Newfoundland then ceasing to exercise any independent jurisdiction over them, in which event Canada's hands would be immensely strengthened in undertaking a diplomatic struggle with the United States. For the latter could no longer play off Canada against Newfoundland then, or vice versa, but either make terms with Canada or be excluded from these territorial waters.

"That is why there has been such bitterness between the Canadian and American fishermen and authorities, always in contrast with friendliness between the Americans and Newfoundlanders, and that is why a recrudescence of this fishery dispute presents such an ominous aspect at this juncture."

HERRING ARE SCARCE.

And Weather Warm at the Bay of Islands.

Thought Now Thought That Big Schools Struck Off.

A special dispatch to Orlando Merchant from Capt. Norman Ross, now at Bay of Islands, N. F., states that herring are now saarce there and the weather warm.

By this it is thought that the big schools of herring which have been there all the season have struck off.

Police Notes.

Six arrests were made by the police over Saturday and Sunday and three lodgers were accommodated.

A man who came from Rockport on the 7 o'clock car Saturday night reported to Officer Chapman that a man with his face badly cut boarded the car just outside the town of Rockport. He appeared to be very much under the influence of liquor and when he got off the car in this city, he said he was going to walk back to Rockport.

Norman Jacobs notified Officer Parsons that a coat had been stolen from in front of the Belmont Clothing Store on Saturday night.

Officer Eason investigated a case of family trouble at a house on Spring street.

Sunday evening Officer O'Maley reported a defect in the highway near the corner of Washington and Mansfield streets.

Officer Joyce reported a pane of glass broken in the window of 77 Duncan street.

Officer White reported a small break in the water pipe on Middle street.

Found No Herring.

Sch. Faustina, which sailed from here a while ago for the Maine coast. for a cargo of frozen herring, returned this morning without a fare. The craft tried at Boothbay, Lamoine, Stave Island, Machiasport, Machias and Falmouth Foreside, but was unable to get what was wanted.
