COVERED WITH ICE

Are Grand, Green and St Peter's Banks.

CAPT. PETERSON BRINGS NEWS

Sch. Corona Met Heavy Ice South of Quero.

Bad weather and plenty of ice, is the report which Capt. Augustus Peterson of sch. Corona brought home from the banks this morning.

The vessel came from Grand Bank and secured a good fare, but Capt. Peterson said he would have had a much larger fare but for the severe weather and the ice driving them off a fine spot of fish. Storm followed storm and then the ice came and at last fairly forced the Corona from the place where she was fishing.

Capt. Peterson reports that the Grand Bank is literally covered with ice, and that St. Peter's and Green Banks are also in the charge of the heavy ice floe. The ice also extends far to the southward as on the homeward passage he encountered lots of heavy floe to the southward of Quero bank.

Lawyer John B. Moran of Boston is said to have been engaged by Keeper John S. Parsons, and he will be given the charges to examine today.

Good Stock.

Sch. Hattie Heckman, Capt. Clarence Malone, stocked $1900 on her recent haddocking trip.

FARES OF SPLIT.

Big Prices on Fresh Fish Take a Tumble.

Several Fares Coming Down from Boston Today.

The fresh fish market at Boston took a tumble yesterday, from the high scale of prices which has been maintained so long, and for the first time this whole winter with one small exception, there are fresh fish fares for the splitters.

Several fares are coming down from Boston to split and sch. Judique's fare at this port has gone to the splitters.

The prices for splitting are very high, about as high as ever has been paid, $2.75 per hundred weight being paid for large cod, $2.25 for market cod and $1.50 for haddock.

Reed & Gamage bought the fare of sch. Judique and Slade Gorton & Co., the trip of sch. Speculator at these high figures, and both firms have other fares coming from Boston at the same prices.

The splitters are greatly in need of fish, and these fares, being new fish, are eagerly bought even at the high prices quoted above.

This with the previous trip makes upwards of 450,000 pounds caught and landed in two weeks and the two largest fares of the season and with the largest trip landed one year ago, makes the three largest fares of halibut in the history of the business.
