Mackerel Notes.

Sch. Faustina, Capt. Augustus G. Hall, arrived here yesterday from off the South Shoal lightship with 60 barrels of fresh mackerel. At Newport yesterday the netters landed 200 swordfish and five of them had good trips of mackerel.

Sch. Emerald, Capt. Alfred Greenlaw, arrived at Newport yesterday with 100 barrels fresh mackerel, which sold at 12 1-2 cents per fish. Sch. F. W. Homans, Capt. John Gallant, also arrived there yesterday with 200 barrels of fresh mackerel, the fish selling for 12 cents each.

The fare of fresh mackerel of sch. Faustina sold to W. E. Dennett at 13 1-2 cents each.

Capt. Augustus G. Hall of sch. Faustina reports getting his fare on the Rips Saturday. The fish were very wild, chasing the live feed which was very plentiful there. At that time a fleet of 60 seiners was there, but most of them left that night for Georges. Capt. Hall does not think that the fish will leave the Rips as long as the live feed remains there. The fish have spawned and are how full of the live feed which they are chasing constantly. The fish are very hard to catch as they show only for an instant and then go down.

At Newport yesterday were the following netters:

Sch. Dixie, 800 fresh mackerel, 8 swordfish.

Sch. Marguerite, 1400 mackerel, 22 swordfish.

Sloop Diana, 1200 mackerel, 24 swordfish.

Sch. Esther Gray, 1100 mackerel, 13 swordfish.

MAINE FISHING VESSEL LOST.

Sch. Frank G. Rich of Boothbay Struck Rock Off Liscomb.

Captain and Crew Escaped with Loss of Effects.

Sch. Frank G. Rich of Boothbay, Me. bound from that port for Bay of Islands, N. F., for a cargo of herring, struck a rock east of Liscomb, N. S., on Sunday, puncturing a hole in the craft through which the water poured so rapidly that the vessel sunk before the crew had time to save any of their effects except the clothing in which they stood.

The schooner ran into thick weather on Sunday, and while running before an eight knot breeze brought up suddenly on a rock east of Liscomb. The pumps were manned, but so rapidly did the water pour in through the gaping hole caused by the collision that it was at once seen to be useless to attempt to keep the craft afloat, and the crew hastily launched a boat, saving nothing but the clothes they stood in.

They had scarcely pushed away from the side of the schooner when she sank, about four minutes after she struck.

It was a long, hard row to Green island, which was reached after the men were thoroughly exhausted. They remained on the island until Monday, when Keeper Burke of the lighthouse rowed them over to Isaacs Harbor in his boat, in time to catch the steamer Strathcona which conveyed the men to Halifax, where they arrived yesterday.

The men will probably leave Halifax today for Boston on the steamer Olivette.

Sch. Frank G. Rich was 105.50 tons gross, 72.13 tons net, built in Essex in 1883, and was owned by the Baldwin Fish Co. She was commanded by Capt. Richard McDonald and her crew consisted of Dennis O'Neil, Thomas Potter, Charles Potter and Harry Owens.

Newfoundland Fishery Notes.

The following from the St. John's, N. F. Herald will be found of interest:

Capt. Bonia, in charge of one of the American schooners with a license, was at Portugal Cove Wednesday morning and engaged men to supply him with caplin. He states that the Gloucester men who did not have a license for our waters have gone home loaded while those who did come to Newfoundland have done practically nothing.

Three American bankers were at Bay Bulls Monday week, Capts. Bonia and Wyse having licenses and the Dora Lawson Murray, to land a sick man as elsewhere reported. She has 125,000 lbs. fish and sailed again.

The cruiser Fiona arrived at Placentia at 2 p. m. June 25, and Inspector O'Reilly and Tidewater Francis arrived at St. John's by train. Caplin are very plentiful at St. Pierre and no infractions of the fishery laws have as yet taken place, nor is it likely that under such conditions that there will be any incentive to contravention of the Bait Act.

Fortune Bay fishermen are by their action, preparing a stick to beat themselves. On learning that caplin had struck Miquelon, and that the French had no means of securing a supply several of our men went over with seines and securing all the caplin necessary conveyed them to St. Pierre, where cold storage plants have been put up and the bait will be kept until another season.—St. John's, N.
