ENGLAND AWARE.

Of Feeling in Newfoundland Regarding Modus Vivendi.

A London dispatch says that Premier Campbell-Bannerman, answering a question in the house of commons yesterday, whether the government was aware of the feeling aroused in Newfoundland by the modus vivendi between Great Britain and the United States on the fisheries question., said that the governor of the colony kept the government here fully informed regarding public opinion in Newfoundland.

The government was aware that Newfoundland had decided to enforce the bait act, but he, the premier, must decline to say whether any, or what steps would be taken by the home government in consequence of the action on the part of the colonial authorities.
