TEN ARRIVALS REPORTED TODAY

DEALERS RECEIVED ONLY FAIR AMOUNT OF FRESH FISH TODAY.

Local dealers received a fair supply of groundfish and flounders today, for up until noon, there had been 10 arrivals reported with fares ranging from 700 pounds up to 5000 pounds. Two of the off-shore trawlers came in for harbor after making one set of the trawls, and each of the arrivals had 5000 pounds of groundfish.

Five draggers at the Producers Fish Company brought in a total catch of 7800 pounds of mixed fish. Murray & Tarr had the dragger St Rosalie with 1500 pounds of flounders and Hall & Murray had a small trawler, and William McDonald, a small fare of fish from the dragger Rosie P. Both of the offshore trawlers took out at the Cape Ann Cold Storage Company. Six gill netters fished yesterday. The Elizabeth and James had 6500 pounds of fish, but they ran to pollock and hake.

After having been tied up at the wharf of the Davis Brother Fisheries Company for several weeks, the boat Mary J. Landry hauled out on Rocky Neck marine railways today, to fit for dragging.

Making Trip South

Captains Peter Favazza and Benjamin Curcuru, interested locally in vessels now engaged in southern dragging, leave tomorrow over land by automobile for Baltimore, thence to Norfolk, Virginia, where the Italian fleet is at present engaged in fishing. They will remain for two weeks.

ONLY FIVE IN BOSTON FLEET

FOUR OF THEM ARE DRAGGERS —RECEIPTS TODAY ONLY 50,000 POUNDS.

Only five vessels arrived at the Boston fish pier this morning. Receipts were unusually small, even for the half day session. The total was 45,000 pounds of groundfish and 8100 pounds of mixed fish. Four of the five were small draggers. The fifth was a trawler with all of the groundfish. Prices were firmer and higher. Smelts continue to arrive in large quantities from New Brunswick. A shipment of 2936 boxes was received yesterday.

SELL FISH EARLIER AT BOSTON PIER

Starting Monday morning, sales of fish from the Exchange platform will begin at 7.15 o'clock, 15 minutes earlier than has been the custom. No carts are to be filled until 7.30, nor any fish taken from boxes until sold and registered, according to new rules just formulated by the New England Fish Exchange.

TWELVE BOATS LANDED FISH

ONLY 7500 POUNDS OF FISH HAVE BEEN LANDED SINCE SATURDAY

An even dozen boats landed fish at local dealers today and yesterday, but their total receipts amounted to only 7500 pounds, not enough to fill the orders of local dealers.

The highest fare amounted to only 2000 pounds. Saturday, the gill netting fleet, eight boats being engaged at fishing at present, landed 13,000 pounds, while yesterday, the same number of boats brought back a combined catch of 10,000 pounds. Practically the entire fleet of draggers and trawlers are out today, and dealers expect a fair supply of fish tomorrow morning. Yesterday, William B. McDonald took three fares from small trawlers, The Producers Fish company, one small trip, and Murray & Tarr the fare of a shore trawler.
