

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 82-1923.
Arctic Packing Company.
English Bay.

February 19, 1923.

- - - - -

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, the Arctic Packing Company, whose home office is at Seldovia, Alaska, is hereby authorized to operate its plant for the canning and salting of salmon for commercial purposes in English Bay, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That on the basis of further information received in regard to the plant and equipment of the Arctic Packing Company and the operations carried on in previous seasons, Permit No. 47, issued to the company under date of December 20, 1922, is hereby canceled and a revised allotment of fishing apparatus and pack is made as specified in this permit.
2. That the company may operate one salmon trap between Dangerous Cape and Seldovia, the exact location of which is to be marked upon a chart or sketch which shall be submitted to the Bureau of Fisheries; and may also operate one beach seine and three gill nets.
3. That the pack of canned salmon shall not exceed five thousand (5,000) cases of all species, in addition to which not more than one hundred (100) barrels of salmon bellies and a small amount of smoked or dried salmon for fox feed may be prepared from the late silver run at English Bay.
4. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
5. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

C. H. Huston.

Assistant Secretary of Commerce.
