SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Supplementary Permit No. Cordova 200-1923,
Eric Albert A. Gissberg,
Halibut Cove, Kachemak Bay.

Seldovia, Alaska,
December 15, 1923.

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, Eric Albert A. Gissberg, whose post office address is Seldovia, Alaska, is hereby authorized to catch and salt herring for commercial purposes, at Halibut Cove, Kachemak Bay, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the winter season of 1923-24, under the following conditions:

1. That Permit No. Cordova 111-1923, issued May 14, 1923, to the above named permittee, granting miscellaneous fishery operations, is hereby cancelled, and in lieu thereof a new permit, granting specific provisions with regard to herring operations, is issued to said permittee, in accordance with instructions from the Commissioner of Fisheries.
2. That permittee is authorized to operate one hundred (100) fathoms of gill net only, for the taking of herring in Halibut Cove and the adjoining lagoon. The use of purse seines is prohibited in Halibut Cove and the lagoon.
3. That the pack of salt herring shall not exceed two hundred and fifty (250) full barrels, and seventy-five (75) tons of bloaters, or dry salted herring.
4. That all herring fishing operations shall terminate January 31, 1924, after which time a close season will be imposed through May 31, 1924; however, if at any time before January 31, 1924, the quality of the fish is not suitable for packing, all herring operations shall cease at once, and a close season will thereupon become effective, and this permit become void.
5. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation, (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
6. That this permit is not transferable and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.
