Permit No. 15.

March 30, 1917.

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALEUTIAN ISLANDS RESERVATION, ALASKA.

Under the provisions of Executive Order of March 3, 1913, establishing the Aleutian Islands Reservation, and in accordance with the regulations for the Aleutian Islands Reservation, Alaska, effective March 15, 1914, Paul Puckley, whose post-office address is Unalaska, Alaska, is hereby authorized to construct and operate on Unalaska Island, Alaska, a plant for the canning or salting of salmon or other food fishes taken in the vicinity of Unalaska Island, and to sell the product thereof, subject to the following conditions.

1. That all work except that requiring skilled mechanics or operatives in connection with the taking of fish and their subsequent preparation for market, shall be performed by native Aleuts or Indians who are residents of the said reservation.

2. That a weekly close season shall be observed from 6 p.m. Saturday to 6 a.m. Monday of each week, during which time all fishing appliances shall be out of the water.

3. That there shall be no fishing within any salmon stream or within 100 yards outside the mouth of any such stream.

4. That no salmon or other food fish shall be taken with any pound net, trap, stake net, or other fixed fishing appliances.

5. That in addition to the restrictions herein imposed, the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and the existing regulations for the administration of the Aleutian Islands Reservation (copies of which are attached hereto) as well as those that may be hereafter enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

6. That an annual report in respect to the business authorized by this permit shall be mailed to the Commissioner of Fisheries, Washington, D. C., not later than December 15 of each year, which report shall describe the extent to which the island has been used during the current calendar year, the physical property upon the island, and the nature of the improvements made in the year, and shall also state the character and amount of employment afforded to natives of the reservation.

7. That failure to observe the stipulations of this permit will automatically result in its termination.

8. That this permit is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

Secretary.
