

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 97-1924.
Charles Sword.
Kodiak.

April 8, 1924.

-----

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, Charles Sword, whose post office address is Kodiak, Alaska, is hereby authorized to engage in the catching and salting of herring for commercial purposes in the Kodiak-Afognak District of the said reservation during the calendar year 1924 under the following conditions:

1. Fishing for herring may be carried on anywhere within the Kodiak-Afognak District, provided that herring purse seines may not be operated within the bays and harbors of the Afognak Forest and Fish Culture Reserve unless they are manned by natives who are privileged to fish within the said reserve. And further provided that in the preparation of herring products within the Afognak reservation so far as possible all work in connection with the taking of herring and their subsequent preparation for market shall be performed by natives who are residents of the said reservation.
2. That the permittee may operate one 160-fathom purse seine and one 200-fathom pound net for the catching and impounding of herring, and may pack not to exceed two thousand (2,000) barrels of salt herring.
3. That this permit does not grant any right to fish for salmon within the waters of the reservation.
4. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
5. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

S. B. DAVIS

Acting Secretary of Commerce.
