

Bureau of Fisheries

Dillingham, Alaska, June 29, 1927
Place Date

REPORT OF VIOLATION OF ALASKA FISHERY LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OFFENSE (Describe fully)

At 3:00 a.m. on June 29th apprehended Jack Asmussen and Oscar Neergard fishing with the Alaska Salmon Company boat Number 3 two miles above the prohibitive markers in the Nushagak River. At this hour the stage of the tide was near high water. There were 7 king salmon and 4 red salmon in their net.

BY WHOM COMMITTED (Names and place of residence in Alaska)

Jack Asmussen and Oscar Neergard

WITNESSES (Names and place of residence)

Eric D. Fenno Anacortes, Washington.

Walter J. Kelly Portland, Oregon.

OTHER MATERIAL FACTS

The men pleaded guilty before U. S. Commissioner Nicholson and were fined $25.00 each.

Eric D. Fenno
Signature

Patrolman
Title