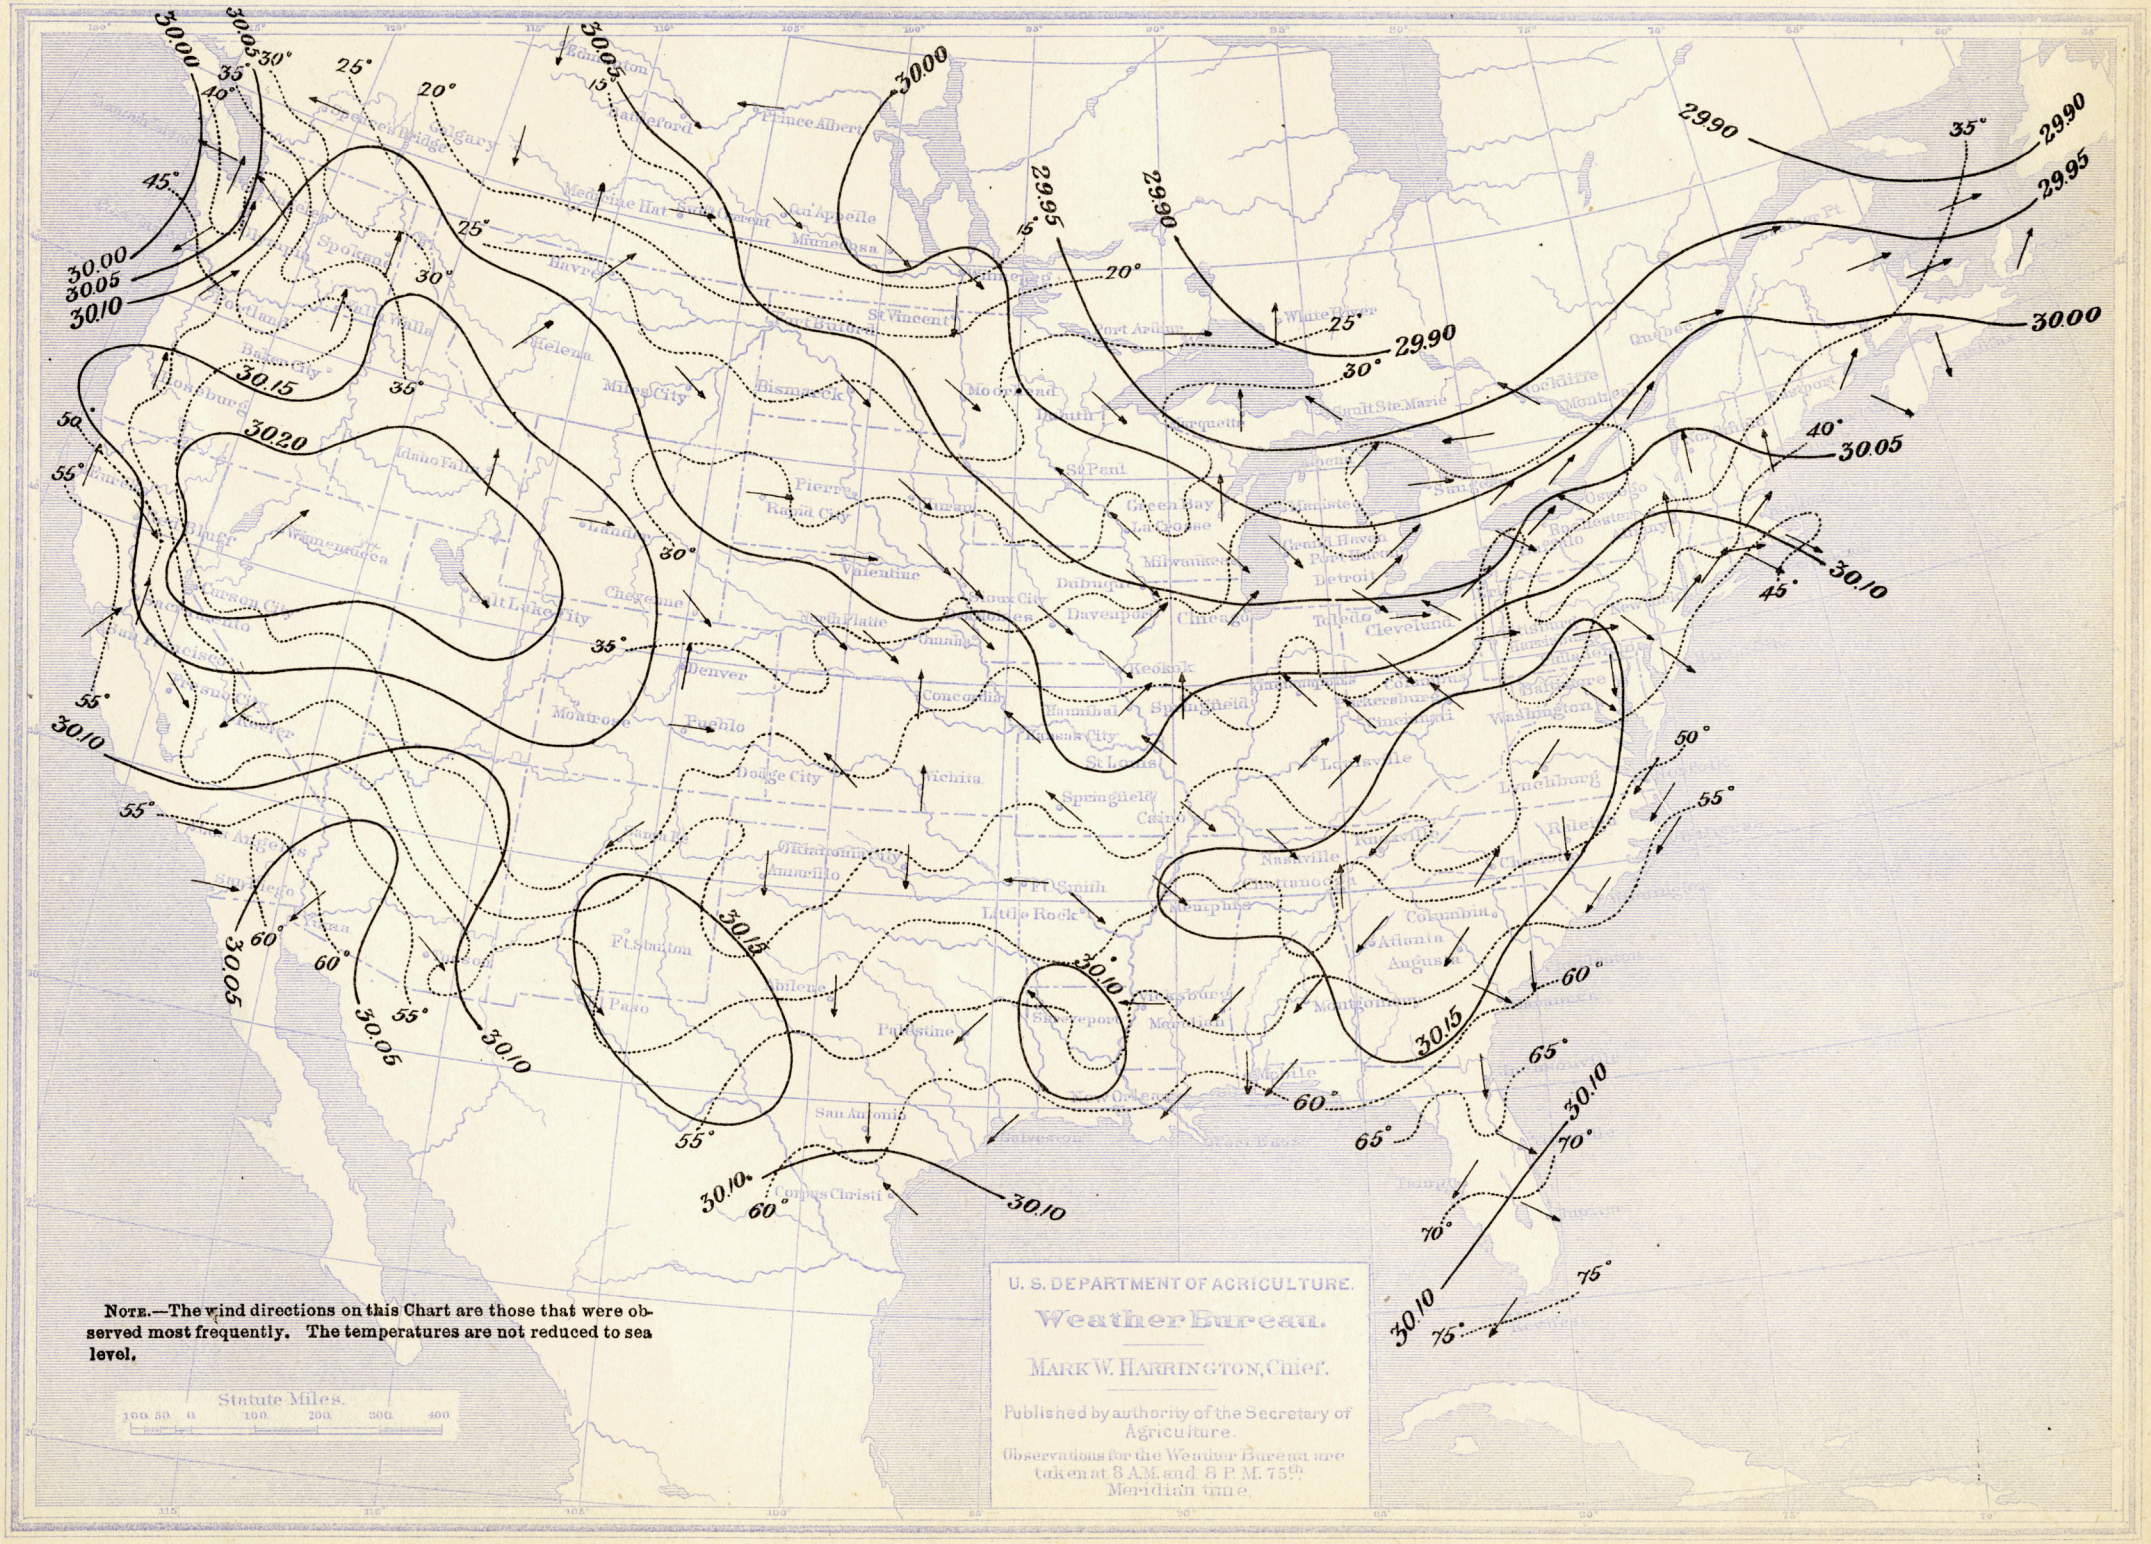
Chart II. Isobars, Isotherms, and Prevailing Winds. November, 1893.



NOTE.—The wind directions on this Chart are those that were observed most frequently. The temperatures are not reduced to sea level.